

LLOYD'S

AUTHORIZATION

Risk acknowledgement and disclaimer

As a participant, parent and/or guardian of _____ (a child and minor), I acknowledge and understand that the practice of equestrian sports and the participation in the equestrian activities involves inherent risks of serious injury. Therefore, I liberate and discharge, without limitation, the owners, trainers and monitors from their responsibilities regarding the above for any or all damage, injury and or loss.

The undersigned, in his name or in the name of his child or child in ward, recognises that he is physically and emotionally capable to participate in these types of activities, and understands the inherent risks of equestrian sports and recognises the importance of following the rules and regulations of the club and instructions of the monitors. In addition, the undersigned agrees to immediately withdraw himself, or his child or child in ward, from club activities and to inform the club personnel if his observations reveal that the conditions, circumstances or procedures are potentially dangerous or if the physical and/or mental status of the participant deteriorates.
